The Customer is obliged:

- To inform his or her customers of the museum's opening days and times, of its admission prices and visitor regulations.
- To deal with any dispute or claim relating to the resale of the tickets

Article 9: CONDITIONS FOR USE OF THE TICKETS

The person in charge of the group shall report to the group reception point where he or she will be met by the museum's reception staff. The staff will supply one admission ticket per person as well as a coloured sticker to be worn in such a way as to be visible to reception and gallery security staff.

The whole group shall report to the counter issuing equipment (microphone and headphones or audioguides) before proceeding to the security check. All members of the group will be subject to checks under the Vigipirate security measures. At the end of the visit, all equipment must be returned in the containers supplied, in the entrance hall.

The MUSEE UNTERLINDEN reserves the right to check the identity of any group members who have bought concessionary tickets (student, senior citizen, etc.) by means of an identity card or valid document.

GROUP VISITS shall be overseen by a supervisor who shall ensure that the group respects the MUSEE UNTERLINDEN's visitor regulations and maintains discipline. Group visitors must under no circumstances disturb the other visitors. Should groups be required to wait at any point in the museum's indoor or outdoor spaces, they must do so calmly.

➤ Fraudulent usage

It is strictly forbidden to sell on, duplicate or forge a ticket in any way whatsoever.

Anyone who illegally reproduces a ticket and/or uses a forged ticket will be liable to criminal proceedings.

The MUSEE UNTERLINDEN refuses access to the site to anyone holding a ticket with a barcode that has already been scanned.

➤ Loss or theft

The MUSEE UNTERLINDEN accepts no responsibility in the event that any tickets are lost or stolen, including on the museum's premises.

Article 10: ALTERATIONS, DELAYS, CANCELLATION AND REIMBURSEMENT

➤ Alterations to GROUP VISITS

The museum reserves the right to refuse to alter the arrival time slot on the basis of scheduling of bookings.

Any reduction of the number of participants may be communicated up to 48 hrs before the arrival date, at no charge. For reductions communicated less than 48 hrs before the arrival date, the full total for the booking as originally planned shall be invoiced.

➤ Delays to GROUP VISITS with a member of the museum's interpretation staff

In the event of a delay, the MUSEE UNTERLINDEN will shorten the duration of the service provided by the equivalent length of time. The visit will therefore not be completed in full and there will be no change to the end time of the visit. If there is a delay of more than 30 minutes with respect to the time of visit stated on the ticket, the museum reserves the right not to offer the service, without the Customer having the right to request reimbursement of the sum paid.

➤ Delays to GROUP VISITS with a person approved to provide commentaries or independent visits

In the event of a delay, for groups that have booked audio equipment or audioguides, the museum reserves the right to shorten the visit by the equivalent length of time.

In the event of a delay of more than 30 minutes, the museum reserves the right to change the time of the visit depending on the availability of visiting slots and the equipment reserved.

➤ Cancellation of GROUP VISITS with a member of the museum's interpretation staff

- Up to 1 month before arrival date: no charge
- Between 30 and 8 days before arrival date: the guide's services are invoiced.

MUSÉE UNTER LINDEN

- Between 7 and 2 days before arrival date: 50% of the cost of the admission tickets is invoiced
- Less than 1 day before arrival date: the full cost of the admission tickets is invoiced.

➤ Reimbursement

Where payment has been made in advance of the arrival date:

- Cancellation of the visit up to 8 days before arrival date: full reimbursement of the payment made
- Cancellation of the visit between 7 and 2 days before arrival date: 50 % of the payment made is reimbursed
- Cancellation of the visit less than 1 day before arrival date: the full amount paid is retained

Any cancellation must be made in writing (email, fax, letter) to the MUSEE UNTERLINDEN. The date on which the MUSEE UNTERLINDEN receives the notification of cancellation shall be considered binding and shall be taken as the basis for calculation of compensation payments.

After the payment in advance is logged, no reimbursements for tickets will be made in the event that participants withdraw. Any unused tickets remain valid for 1 year from the date of issue.

Article 11: LIABILITY

The MUSEE UNTERLINDEN shall in no event be held liable for any failure to provide or poor provision of the services to which the tickets entitle the Customer where this can be attributed either to the Customer's actions, or to the unforeseeable and insurmountable action of a third party, or to a case of force majeure. Such instances may include but are not limited to war, riot, insurrection, interruption of transport, import or export issues, strikes, lockouts, shortage, fire, earthquake, storm or flood.

The MUSEE UNTERLINDEN cannot be held liable for the use of the tickets reserved, as the Customer is solely responsible for their use by him or herself or by third parties.

Article 12: PERSONAL DATA

When booking by telephone or on the internet, personal data are requested from the Customer.

These personal data are stored on the MUSEE UNTERLINDEN's database, and the Customer may make changes to his or her personal information by simple request by email or telephone to the Reservations service at the MUSEE UNTERLINDEN.

These personal data are processed by computer by the MUSEE UNTERLINDEN, for the purposes of processing and following up the booking, and are also held for security reasons, in order to comply with legal and regulatory obligations as well as to enable the MUSEE UNTERLINDEN to improve and personalise the services it offers and the information it provides to Customers.
